NO BULL WARRANTY extension option(s):

Purchase a qualifying air compressor and the associated Extended Warranty Kit (EWK) at the same time and double the full package warranty to a total of two years on the entire unit and triple the pump warranty to a total of three years. Both the kit and compressor must appear on the same receipt. EWK-1 and EWK-2 contain everything needed to properly maintain the compressor for the three year-period when used according to the Instruction Manual. The warranty extension comes free with the purchase of the kit. To qualify, just buy the air compressor and the warranty kit together, register the warranty online at www.QuincyCompressor.com and use the kit contents. It's that simple.

Commercial products are available through major retail outlets, online sellers and at www.BuyQuincy.com.

GENERAL PROVISIONS:

Seller warrants, to each retail Purchaser products of the Seller's own manufacture, against defects in material and workmanship under normal use and service. With respect to products not manufactured by the Seller the Seller will, if reasonably practical, pass along the warranty of the original manufacturer.

The Seller's sole obligation under this warranty shall be, at its option, to repair, replace or refund the purchase price of any product or part thereof which is deemed by the Seller to be defective, provided the purchaser meets all of the applicable requirements of this warranty and none of the limitations apply.

Requirements:

- (a) Purchaser must purchase associated No Bull EWK kit(s) at the same time as the compressor purchase and applicable EWK kit(s) prior to the expiration of the extended warranty period (proof of purchase required, which is the responsibility of the purchaser).
- (b) Purchaser must register products with Seller online at www.quincycompressor.com via the "Register Your Quincy" link. The simple registration form allows Purchaser to upload a photo of the register receipt or valid PO showing both part numbers for the compressor and the kit. If the product is not registered, the factory ship date will be used as a start-up date, and the No Bull Extended Warranty will not be considered valid. Without registering online and following the instruction manual maintenance schedule, the standard one (1) year package warranty shall apply.
- (c) Purchaser must use the kit contents as described in the instruction manual.
